

Our Team

Tim Heney
Broker, CRB, GRI
Tim@HeneyRealtors.com

A third generation of the Heney family to serve the real estate needs of Central Vermonters, Tim began his brokerage career in 1981. A lifelong resident of Montpelier he is dedicated to building an even stronger community through professional and community service. Tim has over two decades of experience creating new homes, condos and neighborhoods.

Fred Van Buskirk
CRS, ABR, GRI
Fred@HeneyRealtors.com

Fred joined Heney Realtors in 1992. In addition to maintaining an active real estate practice throughout the Central Vermont area, he has served on a number of local board committees and was Central Vermont Board of Realtors President in 1998. Fred and his wife Suzanne have three grown children.

Tennis and skiing are his recreation.

Charlie Clark
Broker, CBR, GRI
CClark@HeneyRealtors.com

Charlie has been a real estate Broker for over 20 years with expanded experience and knowledge in the fields of farm, commercial and business opportunities, along with land and residential properties. With his wife Katie, a nursing instructor at Vermont Technical College, they have fifteen grandchildren.

Ann Cummings
Realtor
Ann@HeneyRealtors.com

In addition to selling real estate Ann serves in the Vermont Senate representing Washington County. As a former mayor of Montpelier she knows Central Vermont. Ann and her husband Regis have raised four children in a home they bought from Heney Realtors 30 years ago. She recently helped her daughter and son-in-law buy their first home.

Ray Mikus
Realtor
Ray@HeneyRealtors.com

Ray brings a unique set of experiences to help buyers and sellers of multi-family and rental properties. With years as a personal financial planner and as a teacher, he can crunch numbers, analyze financial ratios and coach people through the whole process. Ray, his wife Karen, and daughter Josephine have welcomed new daughter Willoughby to their family this year.

Kevin Wunrow
Realtor
Kevin@HeneyRealtors.com

With thirty years experience in sustainable construction and marketing, Kevin has owned a plant nursery in Seattle, bicycled across the United States, built a solar powered lodge in the Fiji Islands and sold real estate in New Zealand before making Central Vermont his home with wife Therese, son Zac and daughter Rose.

Jane Eakin
Realtor
Jane@HeneyRealtors.com

Jane is truly rooted in real estate – her father was a South Dakota real estate broker and rancher and her mother ran the county title office. She has lived in North Calais in a circa 1837 Classic Cottage since 1992. Having bought and sold homes of her own, she knows it can be intimidating and stressful. But her goal is to make the perfect match between home and homeowner. And to make it a fun and happy experience!

